and MADDEN, for Commissioners, will be a vote for two veteran business men, who possess the wisdom that comes only with age and experience. Both have learned the lesson of econ omy in business by practical experience in their own affairs. They are grounded in honesty, and just as careful of the county's money as they are of their own. They are pledged to wipe out the interest-bearing debt of the county, which was left them by their predecessors. They are pledged to reduce the county tax gross amount your township paid last year, with the gross amount paid the year previous, and note the difference in your favor. Note the reduction of the county indebtedness and give the old Board a vote, that they may continue the good work.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

In matters strictly political we intend to make The Citizen, and desire to have the paper regarded, as uncompromisingly and exclusively Republican; but on questions social and economic, on which adherents of any and all partisan organizations may be honestly divided without impairing their party allegiance, we are disposed to allow a free interchange of opinions. Hence to such extent as our space will permit, this column is opened as a people's forum in which court all persons observing the amenities of journalism will be accorded a hearing.

President and Mr. Bryan, things look Has any man the right to more different. With Lloyds offering odds of 9 to 1 on Taft, the result seems beyond any doubt. And yet the fight will not be won until the polls close on Nov. 3d. Up to that time, every Republican voter and worker should use every effort to A VOTE for HORNBECK have the full vote of the party polled. Take nothing for granted. Sympathy and sentiment are good, money is a great help, but votes count. So far as the National ticket is concerned, Pennsylvania will retain her proud position a the banner State for Republican maporities, but Taft is not expected to reach the half million majority given for Roose velt. Then the Democracy knew it was beaten when Parker was nominated, and the immense vote east, for Teddy was a great tribute to his popularity.

No complex State ticket requires any attention this year, and that gives the Committee more time to devote to the Congressional, Senatorial and Represent tative fights. Our district presents one of the best possible candidates this year, and the Republicans should make a united effort to reverse the unfortunate esuit of two years ago. Cal. Pratt has every qualification for an ideal Congressman. His enemies are making desper ate efforts to find something with which to stem the tide setting his way, but he is gaining in strength every day. The old Wilmot and Grow district must needs have a Republican to represent it this term, and Pratt looks good to us. Mr. Kipp is said to devote a large portion of his time and influence to securing pensions, and that is good so far as it goes, but we need a Republican in Congress to look after other interests as well, to assist in revising the tariff, in passing currency legislation, to control and regulate corporations and in general to assist President Taft in making this country greater and more prosperous. It would be a big mistake not to send Col. Pratt to Washington. It is a source of gratification to note that the local Republican ticket is giving such general satisfaction in Wayne; it is not often we have a better one. And this is true from the Legislative candidate down to the County Auditor. Mr. Steene. Perham has a strong platform. He believes in Home Rule, which is a cardinal principle in America. He ought to receive the vote of every farmer in the county, for there are very few that are doing more for that class of people. Mr. Perham is an active farmer, a man of experience in business matters, who served the county well and faithfully as Commissioner, and has made a clean and honorable fight for the office for which he is asking support. He may not erect any monuments to dead people, but he will look carefully to the interests of the living, and that is quite as important to us who are above the earth. It is a safe prophecy that his influence and vote in the next Legislature will be worth more to Wayne county than would those of any Democrat that might be chosen. He should receive every Republican vote in the county.
